Global Peacebuilders Program

(Commissioned by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan (MOFA))

The JFY 2016 Mid-Career Course

On Communication and Leadership in International Organizations

Application Guidelines

The “Mid-Career Course,” which is part of the Program for Global Human Resource Development for Peacebuilding and Development (Global Peacebuilders Program), is calling for 15 participants with 10 or more years of job experience in fields related to peacebuilding and development (see below “5. Qualifications”) who aspire to further advance their professional careers in these fields. The participants will take part in 7 days of training in Japan to enhance their knowledge and skills, focusing on Communication/Negotiation and Leadership/Management competencies in international organizations.

1. Duration

Sunday, August 7, 2016 – Saturday, August 13, 2016 (Accommodation provided)

2. Program Structure

Training focused on Communication/Negotiation and Leadership/Management competencies in peacebuilding and development, in particular with regard to the United Nations (UN) system and other international organizations. (See Attachment 2-1, Course Overview for details)
(The training will be conducted entirely in English)

3. Venue

Hotel Asia Center of Japan (Tokyo, Japan)

4. Participation Fees

There will be no fees charged for selected participants

5. Qualifications

- (1) At least ten years of work experience in fields related to peacebuilding and/or development (e.g. administration, aviation, civil affairs, communications, economics, engineering, finance, human resources, humanitarian aid, IT, law, political affairs, procurement, public health, security, and supply chain management).
The Global Peacebuilders Program encourages applicants from the private and non-profit sectors, in addition to international organizations.
- (2) Determination to further one’s career in peacebuilding and development, in particular at the UN and other international organizations.
- (3) Fluency in spoken and written English.
- (4) Full attendance at the training.
*In principle, participants are required to attend the training in full. However, participants with extenuating circumstances may opt to only take part in one of the two halves of the training.

6. Number of Participants to Be Admitted

15 Participants (Japanese and other nationals)

7. Required Documents

Application form (Attachment 2-2)

8. Submission of the Application

Send the completed application form by e-mail to the following address: application@peacebuilders.jp

9. Application Deadline

Monday, June 27, 2016 (5:00 pm Japan Time, GMT+8)

10. Selection Process

Your application will be evaluated and considered in terms of 1) experience and skills in the relevant fields, and 2) the potential for career advancement in peacebuilding and development. The applicants will be notified by email, phone call, or mail regardless of the results by mid-July.

11. Resource Persons

Approximately 5 applicants who have extensive skills and experience in peacebuilding and development will be selected as Resource Persons. Resource Persons are expected to play a leading role in the workshop held during the Mid-career Course, including making presentations on their own experiences in peacebuilding and development. Travel costs of Resource Persons will be covered by the program. Please indicate whether you would like to be considered for the position of Resource Person on your application form (Item 14).

13. Obligations of the Participants

- (1) Participants are expected to carry out the program with utmost diligence.
- (2) Participants are expected to submit a final report and provide input to improve the program.
- (3) Participants are expected to reply to the follow-up inquiries regularly made by MOFA about their latest status after the completion of the program.

14. Post-Program Support

Participants are expected to participate in and cooperate with alumni networking. One-year posts to work as a UN Volunteer (UNV) on peacebuilding and development issues at an international organization may be available for a limited number of Japanese nationals upon consultation with MOFA. Please indicate your interest in a UNV assignment on your application form (Item 16).

15. Preparatory Seminar

A preparatory seminar providing an overview of the UN system and the roles it plays in peacebuilding and development may be held at the request of participants on Sunday, July 31, 2016 at the Hotel Asia Center of Japan. The seminar is intended for those without previous work experience in the UN system; however, participation in the seminar is not a requirement. Please indicate whether you would like to participate in the Preparation Seminar on your application form (Item 15).

16. Notes

- (1) The information in the required documents for the application will be used only for the selection and admission of participants to the program. Please note that photos taken during the course of the program may be used by MOFA and related organizations for the purpose of promoting the program.
- (2) Submitted documents will not be returned.
- (3) Updated information on the program will be available on the HPC website.
